SixAM Strategies
Public Affairs
Arlington, VA

Dear Selection Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Analyst, Public Affairs position at SixAM Strategies. Policy debates are often won or lost far from Capitol Hill, in local newspapers, community groups, and conversations between neighbors, and SixAM's hyperlocal, bipartisan approach to telling a client's story is exactly the kind of public affairs work I want to learn.

At Holland & Knight, I research legislation and regulatory developments and turn them into briefings and talking points for client meetings with policymakers, and I have learned that the most useful material is short, accurate, and written for the person who has to use it. Working on constituent casework in Representative DeGette's office showed me how much local voices shape what Members of Congress pay attention to, and how important it is to follow through on every open request.

My work with refugee families at the International Rescue Committee taught me to listen to people whose priorities differ from mine and to coordinate many parties toward one outcome, and creating outreach content for my credit union has taught me to explain rules in plain language. I would bring that same approach to drafting press materials, tracking coverage, and supporting multi-state campaigns, and I am eager to learn media relations and field work from your team.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I would be excited to help SixAM's clients connect with the communities that matter to them, and I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how I could contribute to your team.

Sincerely,
Adeline Bean
